TRADE AND MARKET REPORTS. A PAINTER'S ROMANCE.

TRADE AND MARKET REPORTS. ITHON, COAL AND METAL TRADES. MIDDLEBOROUGH, Friday.—The Trade-side holiday has been observed here, and the market remains quiet. Mr. Matthew Mars, or, to give him the name under which his birth was registered as a painter, died at a London hospital on Wednesday at the age of 75.

RESIDENCE IN LONDON. As young men James and Matthew lived and travelled together, they were working in industry as early as 1860, starting in the north with the name of Alma-Tadema; in 1865 he went to the Continent, and in 1871 he settled in the Hague. James and Matthew were in Holland for some years, where they painted and designed for the interior of houses in Holland and then came to London in 1873. They were in London for some years, where they painted and designed for the interior of houses in London and then came to London in 1873.

BRADFORD MARKET. Thursday, 2 p.m.—Wool.—Although actual conditions are practically unchanged, traders are inclined to take a more optimistic view of the outlook. The announcement that the Prime Minister is prepared to receive a deputation from the trade has created a most favourable impression among all sections of the market.

THE LAST OF THE BROTHERS MARIS.

Mr. Matthew Mars, or, to give him the name under which his birth was registered as a painter, died at a London hospital on Wednesday at the age of 75. With him disappeared "The Times" reminds us the last of the Dutch artists who had become famous. If Matthew were perhaps less known, so that only a very restricted circle of friends was aware that he was recently at all, it was because of his work as a painter in the Hague.

Hall's Wine is a marvellous means of gaining new health, a wonderful safeguard against breakdown and the ailments which always attack the weak or worn out. In the good it does, Hall's Wine is a holiday in itself.

WAR NEWS OF THE WEEK

FRENCH AND ITALIAN OFFENSIVES.

THE FUTILITY OF THE AIR RAIDS.

Ludendorf is deserving of sympathy. Day after day he is compelled to write fiction as fever heat, and events so crowd on each other's heels that there is no time to correct the Berlin bulletins so that now and again they contain a germ of truth.

Italy's battle of the Innoce has begun. Cadorna, like Haig, believes in thorough preparation before committing his armies to the grand offensive. For months this work of preparation has been in progress.

AUSTRIAN COMMITMENTS.

The pressure which is being exerted on the Innoce, for the offensive operations from the great Montenapoleone, north of Gorizia, to the sea, is causing a serious strain on Austria.

THE AIR RAIDS.

Without doubt have played a very important part in securing the victories which have fallen to the Allied arms.

DOUBTFUL ENTERPRISES.

That is probably the chief reason which has led to the renewal of Zeppelin visits to this country, and also explains why the raid should have been followed up by the visit of Gothas.

RESTORATION OF BELGIUM.

SPECIAL DEPARTMENT SET UP TO GATHER INFORMATION.

Belgium's Agency is officially informed that the Belgian Government have organised a special department to collect information concerning the claims to be made upon the German Government.

INSURANCE ACT CONTRIBUTIONS.

LORD MOWBRAY AND STOURTON SUMMONED.

As Mowbray and Stourton of Allerton were Lord Mowbray and Stourton, as the Lord Mowbray and Stourton, as the Lord Mowbray and Stourton.

WITHINSEA BATHING TRAGEDY.

MOTHER LOSES HER LIFE IN RESCUING HER SON.

Miss Olga Andr, an actress, in private life Mrs. Mabel Wisnisky, met her death at Withernsea on Thursday afternoon under tragic circumstances.

SCENE AT DOVER AND DEAL.

At Dover the danger sign sounded at 10.30, and half an hour later six hostile aircraft appeared over the town.

A DIFFERENT ENGLAND AFTER THE WAR.

Lord Leverhulme, speaking at Leigh on Saturday, said there would not be the same England after the war as there is to-day.

TWO AIR RAIDS.

30 AEROPLANES ATTACK KENTISH COAST.

EIGHT BROUGHT DOWN.

Ten enemy aeroplanes of the Gotta type appeared over the Kentish coast on Wednesday morning, and dropped bombs at Dover, Margate, and Ramsgate.

AT THE HUMBER MOUTH.

BOMB FALLS THROUGH A CHAPEL ROOF

A Press Association correspondent on the East Coast telegraphed: Zeppelins appeared off the Yorkshire coast on Tuesday night and attacked various points.

HAVOC AT RAMSGATE.

THREE MEN KILLED BY ONE BOMB.

A Press Association correspondent on the Kentish coast on Wednesday telegraphed the following account of the raid:

MUNICIPALITY OF A LIVERPOOL SHIPOWNER.

To celebrate his seventieth birthday Mr. Joseph Hunt, a prominent Liverpool shipowner, is contributing a grant of £100 to the cause of the aged seaman.

THE ATTACK ON MARGATE.

DESTRUCTION OF TWO RAIDERS.

The Press Association Margate correspondent states that warning of the approach of enemy aircraft was given in Margate at 8.30 on Wednesday morning.

SHIPPING LOSSES.

INCREASE OF ONE IN BIG VESSELS.

The Secretary to the Admiralty on Wednesday made the following announcement: Weekly returns of arrivals, sailings, wrecks, and unaccounted for.

FINAL SALE—WITHOUT RESERVE.
